

Glassware / Thursday, 22nd August 2024 / Lot 1866

LOT 1866

A Radek Kolbabeck studio glass vase, contemporary, of rectangular shape, the clear body cased in cobalt blue, the central core wrapped with a red spiral thread, engraved mark to base, height 26.5cm, together with two similar Beranek studio glass vases, designed by Jan Konarik, the first with yellow and blue colouring to the clear body (small bruise to rim), the second with pink and purple colouring, height 26cm, another Beranek vase for Skrdlovice with an integral black ball, height 30cm (bruise to foot), and a similar vase (fault).

Estimate: £150 - £200

Condition Report

Central red spiral - in good condition overall with no damage or repairs.

Yellow and blue - small internal bruise to upper surface edge approx 1cm square, the surface of the vase is not broken.

Pink and purple - in good condition overall with no damage or repairs.

Black ball - large internal bruise/crack to one base corner approx 1.5cm square, again it doesn't break the surface of the vase.

Other vase - there is a chip to one of the top pointed corners with an associated internal crack/bruise.

Created: Wed, 21st August 2024 11:28