LOT 45

Leonard Hugh Long – Australian Landscape with Ghost Gum Trees and Mountains, mid-20th century oil on canvas laid onto board, 48.5cm x 58cm, within a painted wood frame. Provenance: Sir John Galvin (1908-1994), thence by family descent. Note: Sir John Galvin was an important patron of Leonard Long's, sponsoring the artist's first overseas painting expedition. Albert Namatjira and Leonard Long were close friends and often painted and exhibited together - this painting may have been included in their 1958 joint exhibition. Exhibited: possibly Recent Paintings by Albert Namatjira and Leonard Long, A.R.A.S., Artlovers Gallery, Sydney, August 1958.

Estimate: £200 - £400
