LOT 1080

A pair of Chinese Canton famille rose porcelain vases, mark of Yongzheng but mid to late 19th century, each ovoid body moulded in relief with a band of six arched panels filled with scenes of immortals, reserved against a ground of bats and vapours, the flared narrow neck with opposing panels of black text and red seals, flanked by elephant mask and ring handles, beneath a lobed rim, iron red enameled pseudo seal mark to bases, heights 31.9cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1080. Vase 1 - chips to underside of two petals of the rim (see images 17 and 18 on our website). Otherwise in good condition with no cracks or repairs.

Vase 2 - generally good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs.

Both with typical wear to gilt, particularly on the rims. Typical light surface scratches and wear to glaze and enamels. Good vibrant decoration.
