LOT 1001

A Japanese shakudo mixed metal inlaid rectangular box with canted corners, Meiji period, the top finely worked in relief with lotus flower and leaf, peony and crab, incised silver signature plaque to lower left corner, length 10.9cm (lacking feet).

Condition Report

1001. Generally fairly good condition except for missing its bracket feet. Otherwise typical light surface scratches and wear. Work to cover is good. Lid fits tightly. Inner gilt liners a little loose in places so would require a little bit of attention. Nice clear signature to silver plaque.
