LOT 1136

A Chinese famille rose circular bowl, late Qing dynasty, the exterior painted and gilt with peach branch, flowers and ruyi heads, underglaze blue four-character mark to base, diameter 13.7cm (minor chip and hairline to rim).

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

There is an approximate 0.5cm square flat chip to the outside top rim edge of the bowl, and a similar much smaller nick.

Approx 2cm long vertical haircrack to top rim edge.

A few typical manufacturers glaze blemishes to bowl interior.

One of the iron red and gilt ruyi heads to the top rim exterior is completely worn, otherwise typical light wear to the enamels and gilding commensurate with age and handling.
