LOT 450

A rare early Victorian silver castle-top card case of shaped rectangular form with hinged cover, one side decorated with a scene of the Fellows' Building, Christ's College, Cambridge, the reverse embossed with flowers and foliate scrolls framing a vacant cartouche, Birmingham 1846 by Nathaniel Mills, weight 71.7g, length 10cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

450. Generally fairly good condition but numerous small dents to all four corners and one small tear/split to one corner. Typical light surface scratches and wear to highpoints, but scene is crisp. Hinge is good, closes tightly, some minor misshaping. Good clear hallmarks.
