

Prints, Maps and Posters / Wed, 30th October 2024 / Lot 96

LOT 96

Edward Stanford (Publisher) - 'Railway, Canal and Road Map of India, 1912', four colour lithographic ordnance maps: North West, North East, South West, South East, each in 40 sections and backed onto linen, with feathered endpapers, each approx 101.5cm x 111cm, folding within a single slipcase. Provenance: understood to be the property of Lord Chelmsford, Viceroy of India 1916-21.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

96. Paper discoloured especially to the outer folds, but seems largely intact in terms of remaining well attached to the linen backing. Box is worn and tired.

Created: Tue, 22nd October 2024 11:41