

Jewellery / Wed, 30th October 2024 / Lot 603

LOT 603

A 9ct gold and bloodstone oval signet ring, engraved with two crests, comprising an elephant with a castle and a squirrel eating a nut, both below two mottos 'Dum spiro spero' (While I breathe, I hope) and 'Virtutis laus actio' (Deeds are the praise of virtue), London 1962, weight 3.8g, ring size approx J.

Estimate: £120 - £160

Condition Report

The ring has been resized in the past.

The bloodstone has some typical light scratching overall, but no significant chips to the crests or mottos.

Some general scuffing and scratching to the shank/setting.

Created: Tue, 22nd October 2024 12:07