

Jewellery / Wed, 30th October 2024 / Lot 750

LOT 750

A French gold backed, silver set, diamond and baroque pearl brooch designed as a floral spray, second half 19th century, mounted with cushion shaped and rose cut diamonds, weight 14.5g, width 5.7cm (safety chain detached but present), with an associated case.

Estimate: £700 - £1,000

Condition Report

In generally good condition for its age.

The pearl has some general unevenness to the surface, with a mottled creamy/silvery lustre.

Pearl measurements approx 25mm x 11.1mm x 7mm.

The diamonds have some slight variation in colour, one or two yellow tinted, average clarity SI.

Total diamond weight approx 1.20-1.40ct.

No signs of any repairs.

Typical tarnishing to the silver. Some slight wear to the settings.

Created: Tue, 22nd October 2024 14:19