LOT 2584

A 19th century English cello, in the manner of Kennedy, length of back excluding button 73.4cm, cased with two bows.

Estimate: £800 - £1,200

Condition Report

2584. There are a series of hairline cracks running vertically under the right bridge foot and off the top lobe of the right 'f' hole. Appears to be a small thin crack running vertically upwards from left bridge foot and some other thin cracks to outer edges. Small crack just under the button on back, otherwise no apparent signs of woodworm and general wear and bumps.
