LOT 324

A Victorian plated table centrepiece, the cut glass bowl fitted within a framework of fruiting hops above an entwined hop stem and similarly decorated circular foot, height 25.5cm (minor faults), a pair of plate mounted cut glass claret jugs, each with hinged lid and scroll handle, on a lobed circular foot, height 30cm, and two other plate mounted cut glass claret jugs.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

324. Plated stand - generally ok but wear to the plate, couple of small solder repairs, small split to one branch and missing one securing nut to base. Glass bowl is probably not original but does fit, numerous small chips to rim.

Pair of claret jugs - both a bit dirty but glass in good order. Plate a little worn and one base a little wobbly.

Two claret jugs - good condition, both with wear to the plate.
