

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 21st November 2024 / Lot 1031

LOT 1031

A Chinese streaky glazed stoneware vase, late Qing dynasty, of tapered cylindrical form with short flared neck, covered in a blue and purple streaky glaze, height 37.5cm (repaired rim).

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

1031. Section of rim broken out into two pieces and re-glued (approx 10.5cm x 3cm) and a small section/chip of outer rim broken and re-glued (3.5cm x 2cm), otherwise typical light surface scratches, wear and chips to glaze drips at base.

Created: Fri, 15th November 2024 12:22