

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 21st November 2024 / Lot 1252

LOT 1252

A Chinese famille rose millefleurs porcelain brushwasher, mark of Qianlong but probably Republic period, of shaped rectangular outline, the exterior painted and gilt with dense flowers, iron red four-character mark to base, length 18.3cm (small chip to rim).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1252. Small chip to corner of rim, otherwise in good condition with no cacks or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear to glaze and enamels.

Created: Tue, 19th November 2024 15:16