

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Tue, 26th November 2024 / Lot 4825

LOT 4825

An 18th century and later Middle Eastern flintlock pistol with octagonal steel barrel, barrel length 28cm, shaped and part-decorated lock and mechanism, decorated wrought metal trigger and guard and all-over decorated brass applied grip and body with painted geometric decoration (losses and damage).

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

4825. Overall an old pistol with later conversion and new parts added over time. Half of flint clamp missing, pins from locks, generally altered, repaired as you might expect for a gun like this.

Created: Wed, 20th November 2024 13:12