

Objects of Virtu / Thu, 28th November 2024 / Lot 2340

LOT 2340

A George III Irish 18ct gold snuff box of rounded rectangular form, the hinged lid finely engraved with a coat of arms and motto 'Quos Deus et Rex Coniunxit', Dublin 1808 by IE with Jacob West Alderman mark, weight 93.5g, length 6.8cm, with original fitted leather case.

Estimate: £3,000 - £4,000

Condition Report

2340. Very good overall condition to both box and case. The box has some overall hairline surface scratching, but otherwise is in lovely condition.

Created: Thu, 21st November 2024 16:51