LOT 2200

A rare George II carved pine fire surround, in the manner of William Kent, the heavy stepped mantel above a frieze finely carved in high relief with a mask looking to one side flanked by scrolling foliage, the sides with bands of scallop shells and scrolls, height 138cm, width 150cm, depth 22cm.

Estimate: £800 - £1,200

Condition Report

2200. General condition overall is rather good considering its age. There are extra support panels added to the upper joints of the two uprights where it meets the mantel. Some loss to the edge of one of the uprights and a few small chips. Some very minor scattered woodworm.
