LOT 4831

A 19th century Indian two-band percussion rifle with sighted steel barrel, barrel length 81.5cm, the lock plate marked 'Made in India', repaired brass trigger guard and brass butt plate, full-stocked with pull-out ramrod, the stock marked '94'.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

4831. Overall repairs and old restorations, some splits and bruising to woodwork, locks ill fitting possibly later added, repaired section to trigger guard on brasswork, some losses to woodwork more around butt end area, butt plate loose with screw lacking, an old but later replaced ramrod. An honest looking gun but overall very tired.
