

Objects of Virtu / Thu, 28th November 2024 / Lot 2374

LOT 2374

A collection of mainly late 18th and 19th century hardstone, glass and shell intaglio carved seals and tablets, including a finely carved shell profile portrait of a gentleman, various inscribed seal terminals and a carved lava clasp section.

Estimate: £100 - £200

---

Condition Report

2374. The general condition is good overall, having some minor wear and some minor scratches but nothing really major. The carved cameo profile portrait is 4.3cm, which is the largest piece, to give an idea of scale.

Created: Mon, 25th November 2024 18:00