

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2024 / Lot 1395

LOT 1395

A Sèvres porcelain cabinet coffee can and saucer, date code for 1769, painter's mark for Charles Buteux (senior), the can painted with a representation of war and peace, depicting a pair of doves perched on a quiver of arrows, bow and a flaming torch, in a landscape setting, the saucer with a maiden's bag hung on a tree branch above a bonnet and musical instruments, a village in the background, both against a geometric patterned ground of stylized flowerheads in green, yellow, puce and blue, blue painted interlaced 'L's' and incised marks to bases, diameter of saucer 12cm, together with a matching Sèvres cream jug (Pot-a-Lait 'a Trois Pieds), painted with a panel depicting figures fishing by and from a bridge, with three branch feet and handle with relief foliate terminals, unmarked, height 8cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

Each piece is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

There is typical rubbing to the gilding and light enamel wear, nothing untoward.

There are light surface scratches to the surface of the saucer commensurate with age and use.

Created: Tue, 26th November 2024 09:51