

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2024 / Lot 1390

LOT 1390

A Barr Worcester orange ground beaker, circa 1800, painted with a panel depicting four muses of the arts, one holding a book inscribed 'Cabien Bible', within a solid gilt line frame, the orange ground with gilt caillouté detail enclosing a small oval gilt 'CW' monogram, the rims with a gilt Greek key border, incised 'B' mark to base with old collector's label inscribed 'Painted by Humphrey Chamberlain', height 9cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

There is typical wear/scratching to the gilding and enamelling overall, primarily noticeable to the orange ground.

Created: Tue, 26th November 2024 10:22