

Silver and Plate / Wed, 27th November 2024 / Lot 429

LOT 429

A late Victorian oak and plate mounted three-bottle tantalus/games box, fitted with three decanters and stoppers, with twin hinged doors above a drawer, length 34cm, together with three silver decanter labels, comprising 'Port' and 'Gin', both Birmingham 1977, and 'Whisky', Birmingham 1975, total weight 38.8g.

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

429. Oak in generally good order with typically light surface scratches and wear. No key for lock. Plated mounts are worn.

One decanter badly cracked and chipped. One decanter in good order with only very minor nicks. One decanter with chip to rim.

Decanters and glasses relatively low quality.

Created: Tue, 26th November 2024 12:24