

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2024 / Lot 1396

LOT 1396

A Sèvres porcelain green ground teabowl and saucer, date code for 1768, painter's mark for Chappuis (senior), painted with gilt framed panels of exotic birds, both rims with a narrow border of gilt oeil de perdrix edged with a wavy garland of berried laurel, blue painted interlaced 'L's' mark to saucer and other indistinct incised marks, diameter of saucer 12.4cm (minor restoration).

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

The teabowl has a small restored chip to the top rim edge (amidst the gilt rim) above the panel with the yellow headed bird, there is a similar small restored chip to the footrim.

The saucer is in good condition with no cracks, chips or restoration. It has a tiny dot of loss to the gilt rim, and some minor surface scratches.

Created: Tue, 26th November 2024 16:41