LOT 1578

Two Dresden porcelain pink ground two-handled cups and saucers, late 19th/early 20th century, painted with figural and foliate panels within gilt framing, underglaze blue marks to bases, diameter of largest saucer 14cm, together with a small group of other Continental porcelain, including a set of eight floral painted cups and saucers with moulded gilt enriched scrolls and a Limoge dressing table pot and cover.

Estimate: £60 - £80

Condition Report

Pink ground two-handled cups and saucers - one is likely to be missing a cover, the other has a glued handle, the saucers are ok.

The remaining items in the lot are in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

The dressing table pot and cover has worn gilding, as does the pail shaped pot with integral stand.
