

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2024 / Lot 1391

LOT 1391

A Pinxton porcelain named view cup and saucer, circa 1798, of Brookhill Service type, pattern No. 221, the cup with 'Matlock in Derby', the saucer with 'Kidwelly Castle, Carmarthen', within gilt frames and a white ground of scattered gilt sprigs with enamelled blooms, iron red painted marks and titles to bases, diameter of saucer 14.3cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

The enamels and gilding are good with minimal wear commensurate with age and use.

The saucer cavetto has surface scratches, as does the base interior of the cup.

Created: Wed, 27th November 2024 14:34