

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2024 / Lot 1467

LOT 1467

A Joost, Thooft & Labouchere (Royal Delft) circular wall charger, 20th century, painted in blue with a landscape depicting windmills, indistinctly signed, impressed and blue painted marks to base, diameter 34.5cm, together with a similarly painted Delft jug with pewter tappit lid, height 22cm, and a small wall plate painted with flowers, diameter 15cm, with two boxes.

Estimate: £50 - £70

---

Condition Report

The jug and the charger have overall typical crazing to the glaze, otherwise each piece is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

The boxes are matched and generally ok but a little dog-eared with some sellotape stuck to them.

Created: Thu, 28th November 2024 10:28