

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2024 / Lot 1411

LOT 1411

A family of Beswick Black-Faced sheep, comprising ram, No. 3071, lamb, No. 1828, and sheep, No. 1765, together with eight other Beswick animal models, including a Tamworth Sow, No. 4114, three dogs, badger, two brown gloss foals and a fox, and a small group of other animal models, including a Sitzendorf hen and three chicks.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

Overall each piece is in good condition with no cracks, chips or restoration.

The Beswick dish surmounted by three mallards is crazed but ok.

One of the tiny brown rabbits has a minuscule nick to its front left paw.

Created: Thu, 28th November 2024 10:39