

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2024 / Lot 1697

LOT 1697

A Macintyre Moorcroft lustre vase, circa 1907-10, decorated with the Cornflower pattern in shades of blue, green and yellow against a pale ground, brown printed factory mark to base with green painted signature, height 15.3cm (professional restoration to foot and rim).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

There is professional restoration to approximately a one quarter section of the top neck rim, and similar professional restoration to the outer circumference of the foot. Both of these areas are well executed and only noticeable by a trained eye.

Otherwise the vase is in good order with typical crazing to the glaze.
