LOT 1835

A Daum Nancy acid-etched and enamelled glass landscape vase, circa 1900, the frosted oblong body with mottled lime green colouring, decorated with leafy trees in a hilly landscape, gilt painted mark to base 'DAUM NANCY' with the Cross of Lorraine and 'AR' monogram, height 11.5cm, length 15cm.

Estimate: £700 - £1,000

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no damage or repairs.

There are light surface scratches to the interior as though it has been used to store something.

Typical light scratches to the base commensurate with age.

Very minor surface wear to the enamels, nothing untoward.
