

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2024 / Lot 1514

LOT 1514

A Joseph Holdcroft majolica jardiniere, late 19th century, the basketweave moulded U-shaped body relief decorated with branches of white wild roses, raised on branch feet, turquoise glazed interior, impressed mark to base, height 23.5cm.

Estimate: £40 - £60

---

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Typical overall crazing to the glaze.

There is a minor manufacturing blemish to the top rim edge - visible in the first image on our website using the zoom function, it is situated on the rim above the uppermost two green leaves.

Created: Tue, 3rd December 2024 09:49