

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2024 / Lot 1418

LOT 1418

A Doulton Gothic style stoneware oil lamp, circa 1900, the pail shaped top with stylized foliate decoration and gilt metal rim, raised on a twisted gilt metal stem and similarly decorated gilt metal mounted domed foot, with green glass reservoir and Hinks fittings, height to top of burner 47cm (repaired through top of domed foot), together with a frosted glass chimney and an etched blue glass shade.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

The domed pottery foot has been broken and repaired through the top just below where the twisted gilt metal stem starts.

Otherwise in good condition.

We cannot guarantee the mechanism to be working but the glass reservoir is intact with no damage.

Created: Tue, 3rd December 2024 11:33