

Glassware / Thu, 5th December 2024 / Lot 1863

LOT 1863

"A rare John Walsh Walsh lily flower holder, late 19th century, the white top in the form of a calla lily bloom, raised on a twisted, reeded vaseline glass stem and moulded foot, moulded Rd. No. 271422 to base, height 27cm (chip to foot), together with an unusual cranberry glass jug with applied vaseline glass stylized shell motifs and squiggles, height 19.5cm, and a group of other similar late 19th/early 20th century glass, including a Jack-in-the-Pulpit cranberry tinted vase, height 23cm, a Fenton type spot decorated cranberry and opalescent vase, height 16.5cm, and uranium glass trumpet vases (minor faults).

Provenance: from the collection of John and Poppy Stallebrass."

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Pair of lime green trumpet vases - one with some losses to the rigaree detail.

The cranberry jug has some teeny tiny losses to the applied detail, very inconsequential.

The Lily flower holder has a largish chip to the foot.

Otherwise the items in the lot are in good condition with no damage or repairs.
