LOT 1439

A Capodimonte sweetmeat dish, late 19th century, modelled as a faun seated on a shell holding above its head a shell dish, raised on a square base with colourful enamelled moulded scrollwork, blue painted crowned 'N' mark to base, height 14cm (minor nicks to shell dish), together with a similar figure of a classical male nude, height 17.5cm, and a Capodimonte coffee cup and saucer moulded with classical figures.

Estimate: £60 - £80

Condition Report

The sweetmeat dish has lots of small chips/nicks to the edge of the shell top, otherwise each piece in the lot is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.
