

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2024 / Lot 1546

LOT 1546

A Derby porcelain dolphin cream boat, circa 1765, painted in the Cannonball pattern, unmarked, 9cm high, together with a Worcester Fisherman and Cormorant pattern egg drainer, circa 1785, with shell handle, hatched crescent mark to base, 10cm long.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

Cream boat - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. There is manufacturer's pitting to the glaze and some staining to the underside of the foot.

Drainer - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Wed, 4th December 2024 13:19