LOT 1595

A pair of Paris porcelain rocaille vases by Edward Honoré, circa 1840, the black glazed baluster bodies painted with floral arrangements above small yellow ground floral panels, overall elaborately moulded with rococo scrollwork picked out in pink and green enamels and gilding and applied with shells, the column stems raised on scroll feet, gilt painted mark to bases, height 30.5cm (some faults), together with a pair of Vienna style porcelain urn shaped vases raised on pedestal bases, height 21.5cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

First vase - one foot has been broken off and visibly repaired back with rivets and a small chip to one of the puce foliate mouldings on the foot.

Second vase - one handle with small inconsequential chip.

Vienna vases - both in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Typical wear to gilding.
