LOT 2602

An 18th century Dutch brass snuff box with four-dial locking lid, diameter 8.8cm (faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

2602. Overall the box is quite worn and scratched, and has quite a loose hinge. The top three dials operate the lock and the moon operates the latch. All three locking dials do work, the left opens at XI, the sun needs to face upright and the right dial at XII. The moon then slides to hold the lid closed, but the clasp is quite worn.
