LOT 2629

A modern singing bird automaton by Reuge Music, modelled with two articulated birds within a gilt metal cage, height 28cm.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

2629. The birds appear to be in working order, with all parts moving and all notes seem to be working. The birds are a bit dusty and the wirework cage is slightly misshapen. Otherwise in good order.
