

Jewellery / Wed, 22nd January 2025 / Lot 745

LOT 745

A gold and bloodstone intaglio signet ring, carved as a bird perched on a branch with thistles above the motto 'Intemerata Fides' (Uncorrupted Faith), otherwise with scroll engraved shoulders, detailed 'BIRKS 18K', weight 10g, ring size approx M, with a case. Note: reportedly purchased from Waddington's Auctions, Canada, and believed to have belonged to Canadian painter James Wilson Morrice (1865-1924).

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

745. Ring is in generally good condition. Bloodstone intaglio is in good order with good colour and crisply engraved. Gold mount is in good condition with good crisp engraving. The ring is detailed 'BIRKS 18k'.

Created: Wed, 15th January 2025 15:09