LOT 312

A pair of late 19th/early 20th century German .800 silver baluster candlesticks, each with a detachable nozzle above an urn shaped sconce and tapering square lobed stem and similar square base, on scroll feet, by Hugo Böhm, total weight 585.9g, height 32.5cm.

Estimate: £180 - £240

Condition Report

312. Both in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear and would certainly benefit from a clean. Good definition to highpoints and decoration. Nozzles fit well. They stand straight with no wobbles and good clear marks. They are fairly light weight as they are case and embossed with no loading.
