LOT 1038

A Chinese silk embroidered rectangular panel, late Qing dynasty, worked in coloured thread with a pair of ornamental pheasants, ducks, cranes and other birds around a lotus pond with pine tree above, on a blue ground, 108cm x 68cm, framed and glazed.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1038. The silk panel is in generally good condition but does have some condition issues. The blue silk ground has some small tears and wear particularly along the top edge, and smaller splits/tears further down the panel with some slight discolouration (all visible in the images on our website). The embroidery/stitching is in generally good order. Framed and glazed.
