LOT 1815

A moulded, cut and engraved prismatic glass block nativity scene, probably early 20th century, unmarked, height 16cm, together with a Czechoslovakian glass paperweight block engraved with an elaborate building and gardens, marked 'PRAHA' to base, height 13.5cm.

Provenance: from the collection of John and Poppy Stallebrass.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

Nativity scene - tiny chip to front bevelled base edge in line with kneeling male figure. The right side edge has a couple of indistinct polished spots which are no doubt disguising chips to the back edges of the cow and donkey. Otherwise in good condition with some typical minor manufacturing blemishes to the glass, i.e., bubbles and striations.

Paperweight - in good condition overall, pinhead sized nick to one upper side edge rim.
