LOT 1823

A pair of Art Deco style black enamelled and cut glass candlesticks, probably Czechoslovakian, 20th century, of tapered square column shape cut with a geometric design, unmarked, height 25.3cm, together with a small group of similar Art Deco and Art Deco style glass, including a ruby flashed and silvered cocktail shaker and stopper of faceted cylindrical shape, three decanters and two stoppers of faceted form with flashed and cut decoration, a similar decanter and stopper with silvered edges engraved with fruiting vine, height 23cm, a smoky glass decanter and stopper silvered with scrolls and trellis, and a mix of matched shot and cocktail glasses (minor faults). Provenance: from the collection of John and Poppy Stallebrass.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

One of the black decorated angular decanters is lacking its stopper and has a chip to its top rim edge.

The faceted clear squat decanter has chipping to the top end of its stopper.

The red decorated cocktail shaker and stopper has some small chips to the end of its stopper.

Otherwise items in the lot are in good condition overall. A couple of the glasses have some minuscule nicks to the rim edges, but nothing terrible or unsightly.
