

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 13th February 2025 / Lot 1411

LOT 1411

A pair of Meissen figures modelled after Acier as a Vintner and his Companion, late 19th century, each standing beside a barrel on a circular base edged with gilt enriched moulded detail, crossed swords in underglaze blue to bases, incised model Nos. F.80 and impressed numerals, heights 17cm and 18cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

Male - small chip to outer left side edge of base, 2 absolutely tiny nicks to hem of pink frock coat, missing end of one of the spare spigot's held aloft in left hand. Otherwise in good condition with no restoration.

Female - 3 small chips to front outer edge of base and one tiny nick to side edge of base, tiny nick to front of hat brim and some losses to the lace ends of her dress which are very inconsequential. Otherwise in good condition overall with no restoration.

Created: Tue, 11th February 2025 09:38