

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 13th February 2025 / Lot 1573

LOT 1573

A Worcester toy or small size Fence pattern teabowl and saucer, circa 1770, hatched crescent mark in underglaze blue to base of saucer, diameter of saucer 10cm, diameter of teabowl 5.8cm, a small group of other Worcester Fence pattern wares, comprising a sparrow beak jug, height 10cm, a saucer dish with shaped rim, diameter 15cm, two teabowls, three saucers and a small teapot and cover, together with a teabowl and sugar bowl in the Fisherman and Cormorant pattern (faults and restoration).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

7.3cm diameter Fence teabowl - 4 small nicks to top rim edge.

10.5cm Fisherman sugar bowl - approx 0.5cm square flat chip to outer top rim edge.

Fence saucer dish with scalloped rim - approx 0.5cm square flat chip to outer top rim edge.

Jug - badly cracked, glued chip to outer rim edge of neck and some chipping to footrim.

Teapot - restored spout, cover matched as slightly different colour and with restored chip to edge.

Remaining items in lot are in good condition with no damage or repairs.

Created: Tue, 11th February 2025 14:06