

Silver and Plate / Wed, 19th February 2025 / Lot 460

LOT 460

A set of twelve Edwardian silver dessert knives and forks with engraved decoration and mother-of-pearl handles, London 1903 by Josiah Williams & Co (George Jackson & David Fullerton), within oak case.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

460. The set is in generally good clean condition. No significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches. Good crisp engravings. Mother-of-pearl handles in good order. Good clear hallmarks. Case in good condition, re-glued brass plaque to top.

Created: Tue, 11th February 2025 14:54