

Glassware / Thu, 13th February 2025 / Lot 1838

LOT 1838

A large Stevens & Williams 'jewelled' glass vase of 'zipper' design, late 19th century, of amber tint with faint cranberry striations, unmarked, height 19cm, a Stevens & Williams Royal Brierley pink threaded glass vase with subtle diamond moulded detail, height 20cm, and four other pieces of glass, comprising a jug and bowl with yellow, cranberry and white spirals of colour, a square shaped jug with green wavy horizontal detail, height 20cm, and a tazza with pale blue threaded combed detail, height 15.5cm. Provenance: from the collection of John and Poppy Stallebrass.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

Zipper vase - some chipping to base edge around upper edge of footrim where the bubbles have burst during manufacture, one small piece has an associated approx 0.5cm haircrack here. Otherwise the vase is in good condition.

Green jug - very insignificant nick to reeded detail of lower handle terminal, very inconsequential and more easily felt than seen.

Otherwise all items in the lot are in good condition with no damage or repairs.

Created: Tue, 11th February 2025 15:55