LOT 2333

An 18th century South Staffordshire gilt metal and enamel étui, the exterior finely painted with figures and animals within classical ruin landscapes, on a blue ground, the interior fitted with various accoutrements, length 9.5cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

2333. Generally good order overall but with two areas of professional surface restoration to the blue ground side panels of the hinged lid, barely noticeable until a blue light is shone on it. Otherwise some minor surface wear around edge of top and a few minor scratches.
