

Objects of Virtu / Thursday, 20th March 2025 / Lot 2352

LOT 2352

A large and impressive late 19th century gilt bronze novelty scent bottle case, modelled in the form of a beehive, the ropetwist effect body embellished with five bees, the hinged lid enclosing four cut glass bottles with gilt metal screw-off lids, width 17.3cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

---

Condition Report

2352. Bottles and interior all appear to be in good order, however one stopper is stuck. One pair of wings missing to the left side bee and also a few wire legs missing on the other bees. The exterior has an overall oxidization to its gilt surface, resulting in dark dots around the base.

Created: Tue, 18th March 2025 16:39