LOT 1179

A pair of Chinese blue and white export porcelain beaker vases, Kangxi period, of square section trumpet form, each side painted with a figure, bird and leaping carp, height 13.5cm (one repaired and minor chips).

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1179. Vase 1 - good condition, no significant damage or repairs. Typical minor fritting to glaze on edges and very small glaze chip to edge, otherwise typical light surface scratches to glaze.

Vase 2 - broken in half just above the foot and re-glued, otherwise generally good condition with no other significant damage. Typical light surface scratches to glaze and typical minor glaze fritting/tiny chips to edges. This vase also leans to one side slightly as it stands. Glazed over chip to one corner of base, but not subsequent damage and it is in the manufacturing.
