LOT 1844

A mixed group of craquelure ice glass, Bohemian or French, mid 19th century and later, including three comports with gilt enriched scalloped rims, diameter 23cm, an oblong dish with fitted cream and sugar, length 29cm, four leaf shaped dishes, including one with gilt veining, two pots with covers and stands, a large shell shaped dish, length 28cm, a pink tinted shell shaped epergne dish, other shell shaped epergne sections and stands, two jugs with ice compartments, tallest 29cm, various other centrepiece sections and seven plates (some faults). Provenance: from the collection of John and Poppy Stallebrass.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

One of the plain jugs has a polished chip to the top rim edge.

Melon shaped dish with cover and stand has riveted repair to handle.

Cover with green snake finial has crack to the snake.

Otherwise items in the lot are in good condition overall with no damage or repairs.

There are varying degrees of wear to the gilding overall.

Please note, a lot of items in the lot are parts or sections of other objects which are not included in the lot, e.g., the large pink tinted shell dish should have some kind of epergne or stand fitting.
