

Glassware / Thursday, 1st May 2025 / Lot 1878

LOT 1878

A small group of pink and white swirl glass, late 19th century, including a pair of circular baskets with clear thorny overhead handles, height 17.5cm, a pair of lobed vases on clear pulled feet, height 11.5cm, and a pair of onion-necked vases, height 12.5cm, together with a mixed group of similar glass, 19th and 20th century, including a pair of pink ground spatter vases with mica detail, height 21cm, a pale blue glass five-light candleholder with applied clear rigaree detail to the stem, height 29cm, two green craquelure ice glass vases and a pair of yellow spatter vases raised on clear pulled bases, height 22cm. Provenance: from the collection of John and Poppy Stallebrass.

Estimate: £70 - £100

---

Condition Report

One of the pair of pink spatter glasses with lobed body has a flat chip to the neck rim exterior.

The pink and orange basket with overhead handle has a small crack by one of the handle terminals.

Multicoloured circular jar and cover has some minor chipping to the top rim edge of the bowl and the base edge of the cover.

Clear ice glass cylindrical vase with orange applied spirals has a chip to its foot.

Pair of yellow and white trumpet vases with clear pulled bases, one has a chip to the base.

Remaining items in the lot are in good condition overall with no repairs or significant damage.

Created: Wed, 23rd April 2025 14:24